Re: NOTICE OF RESPONSE TO FOIA REQUEST
FOIA FILE NO.: P526597

Dear Mr. Stecklow:

The Chicago Police Department (CPD) is in receipt of your Freedom of Information Act ("Act") request. It was determined that you are seeking:

"Summary digest reports and attachment sheets for all CRs naming Kevin Glover #1587"

The Chicago Police Department is now responding to your request. Your request was reviewed by the undersigned. The Summary Digest reports and attachments sheets can be provided to you, however, please be advised that the Chicago Police Department has redacted certain information, as explained further below

Section 7(1)(b) exempts from disclosure "[p]rivate information, unless disclosure is required by another provision of this Act, a State or federal law or a court order." 5 ILCS 140/7(1)(b). The FOIA, in 5 ILCS 140/2(c-5), defines "private information" as follows:

"Private information" means unique identifiers, including a person's social security number, driver's license number, employee identification number, biometric identifiers, personal financial information, passwords or other access codes, medical records, home or personal telephone numbers, and personal email addresses. Private information also includes home address and personal license plates, except as otherwise provided by law or when compiled without possibility of attribution to any person. In addition, signatures are unique identifiers and, therefore, an exempt form of private information."

Therefore, social security numbers, driver's license numbers, employee identification numbers, home or personal addresses, telephone numbers and signatures were properly redacted pursuant to Section 7(1)(b).

Dates of births, were also redacted, as they are exempt from disclosure pursuant to 5 ILCS 140/7(1)(c) of FOIA. Section 7(1)(c) exempts from inspection and copying the following:

"[P]ersonal information contained within public records, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy... 'Unwarranted invasion of personal privacy' means the disclosure of information is that highly personal or objectionable to reasonable person and in which the subject's right to privacy outweighs any legitimate public interest in obtaining the information." Id.

In addition, names of persons who filed a complaint and/or provided information to law enforcement personnel have also been redacted pursuant to 5 ILCS 140/7(1)(d)(iv) which protects information that would:

(iv) unavoidably disclose the identity of a confidential source, confidential information furnished only by the confidential source, or persons who file complaints with or provide information to administrative, investigative, law enforcement, or penal agencies; except that the identities of witnesses to traffic accidents, traffic accident reports, and rescue reports shall be provided by agencies

The available redacted records you have requested are enclosed. If I can be of further assistance, please contact me at the email listed below.

You have the right to have a denial reviewed by the Public Access Counselor (PAC) at the Office of the Illinois Attorney General, 500 S. Second St., Springfield, IL 62706, (877)299-3642. You also have the right to seek judicial review of your denial by filing a lawsuit in the Cook County Circuit Court under 5 ILCS 140/11.

Sincerely,

Cindy Lynch
